Lullaby

Created by Panta Rei Danseteater (Norway)

Lullaby is a striking dance theatre production with a cast of three dynamic and committed young male dancers performed with live music. The piece explores progressively friendship, joshing, friction, needling and masculinity, and the dynamics of mediation between bickering factions. However, The double-bill also dives into humor in the second half and allows masculinity to be observed through dance with technical complexity and wit.

About ArtisTree Selects

Be moved by over 20 powerful performances that transcend language, generations and culture. Moving Pieces is a collection of monumental dance productions from the most influential and inspiring artists of our time. Presented from 8 August to 28 September 2019, the series will include behind the scenes access to lunchtime open rehearsals and weekend dance workshops.

ArtisTree Selects aims to open the world of art to new audiences by presenting work commissioned and curated by ArtisTree and its partners in exciting and approachable new ways - featuring touring exhibitions, dance performances, intimate concerts, multi-disciplinary shows, and more.
